

CALL FOR ENTRIES

Our panel of regional editors will judge your printed newspaper based on design, editing, writing, coverage and service to its readership. First, Second and Third Place will be awarded. NESNE will also honor two students who epitomized the craft of journalism during their college careers.

The ceremony will take this spring at
The Boston Globe, 1 Exchange Place, Boston, MA.

COLLEGE JOURNALISM AWARDS

TOP JOURNALIST – A college senior who epitomized the best of the craft over his or her college journalism career. Nominees may be reporters, editors, copy editors or digital journalists.

COLLEGE RISING STAR AWARD – Honors an undergrad who is already distinguishing her or himself as a standout in the newsroom. Nominees may be reporters, editors, copy editors or digital journalists.

Click here for the application.

Deadline for awards: March 28, 2019

No Entry or application fee required

COLLEGE NEWSPAPER OF THE YEAR ENTRY INSTRUCTIONS

Send two issues from the 2018-2019 school year:

- (1) one issue published from September through December 2018; and
  - (2) the first issue published in the month of February 2019
  - (3) Print newspapers should mail three copies of both issues; news websites should mail three CD's with PDFs of both issues
- Mail entries and award applications to:
NESNE College Journalism Awards
c/o NENPA
1 Arrow Drive, Suite 6
Woburn, MA 01801

Contact Christine Panek at NENPA c.panek@nenpa.com or (781) 281-7284

New England Society of
News Editors