

2020 College Journalism Awards

Deadline for filing: May 1, 2020

TOP JOURNALIST – A college senior who epitomized the best of the craft over his or her college journalism career. Nominees may be reporters, editors, copy editors or digital journalists.

College RISING STAR AWARD – Honors an undergrad who is already distinguishing her or himself as a standout in the newsroom. Nominees may be reporters, editors, copy editors or digital journalists.

Individual journalism award qualifications:

1. Must be a resident of New England.
2. Must be a college student studying journalism or a related field in school.
3. Must have a GPA of 3.0 or above.
4. Must demonstrate a serious interest in a career in journalism by sending the following materials:
 - Cover letter
 - Transcript
 - Resume or biography
 - Letter of recommendation
 - Body of published work in a school news publication, general circulation newspaper, or a similar publication OR a body of work prepared for a journalism class

College Newspaper of the Year – Can include a website, but must publish a print edition on a regular basis. Send two issues from the 2019-2020 school year:

1. One issue published from September through December 2019; and
2. The first issue published in the month of February 2020
3. Print newspapers should mail two copies of both issues; include websites links on a separate sheet. Due to the coronavirus, if you are unable to retrieve paper copies of your newspaper, email digital versions to c.panek@nenpa.com or use the online entry form to upload them.

College News Website of the Year – Open to all college online multimedia publications. This can include college TV and radio station websites.

Applicant's name _____

Phone _____ E-mail _____

School name _____ City/State _____

Award applying for (complete a separate form for each entry):

- Top Journalist Rising Star Newspaper of Year News Website of Year

Email to: c.panek@nenpa.com or mail hard copies to: NESNE College Awards, 1 Arrow Drive, Suite 6, Woburn, MA 01801

For further information please call Christine Panek at (781) 281-7284