

2021 Yankee Quill Nominations

Call for nominations

Yankee Quill

Award 2021

For more than 60 years the New England Academy of Journalists has been honoring our region's most extraordinary journalists for their contributions to a free press and their efforts to improve the communities they serve.

Other journalism associations bestow awards for individual and team accomplishments, but the Yankee Quill recognizes the lifetime achievement of those who have had a broad influence for good, both inside and outside the newsroom. This award is not designed as a primary writing award, but for the broad, long-term good provided to journalism across New England.

Winners are selected from nominees that represent newspapers, broadcasting and academia. Recipients are inducted into the Academy of New England Journalists upon receiving the Yankee Quill award.

Due to the pandemic, the awards were not presented in 2020. With COVID restrictions reduced, we hope to have some kind of celebration in 2021. The nominations submitted last year will be considered this year.

Please submit nominations for those who have devoted a lifetime of contribution to the profession.

Further information and nomination forms can be downloaded at: Yankee Quill | NENPA

Deadline for nomination is Wednesday, June 30, 2021.

For further information contact:

George Geers, academy chairman, gnews@empire.net / (603) 785-4811

Linda Conway, academy clerk, L.Conway@nenpa.com / (781) 281-7648