

Newspapers of New England

Executive Editor

Western Massachusetts

Newspapers of New England is seeking a dynamic, experienced and collaborative executive editor to lead the award-winning Daily Hampshire Gazette, Greenfield Recorder, Athol Daily News, Amherst Bulletin and Valley Advocate in the beautiful Pioneer Valley of Western Massachusetts. Office locations in Greenfield and Northampton.

The ideal candidate will have deep journalistic experience as well as new ideas to help us serve an ever-changing audience across multiple platforms. The executive editor must be motivated to mentor and train young journalists as well as our more experienced staff. Experience managing multiple newsrooms while maintaining a hands-on relationship with the staff and news in each community is important.

This is a perfect opportunity for a leader looking to break away from the corporate world and apply their ideas, energy and enthusiasm to leverage our historic brands while transforming and positioning them for long-term sustainability and audience growth. A command of audience analytics and experience with the tactics that drive results is critical.

Interested candidates should submit a cover letter, resume and salary requirements to Shawn Palmer, Publisher, at spalmer@nnenews.com. Newspapers of New England is an equal opportunity employer committed to diversity in the workplace.

Newspapers of New England, Inc., independently owned since 1888, is the parent company of daily newspapers including The Valley News (Lebanon, NH), the Concord (NH) Monitor, the Daily Hampshire Gazette (Northampton, MA), the Greenfield (MA) Recorder and the Athol (MA) Daily News. In addition, NNE publishes the twice-weekly Monadnock Ledger-Transcript (Peterborough, NH), the weekly Amherst (MA) Bulletin and various specialty publications and websites. NNE also operates a commercial printing facility in Penacook, NH.